

Something About Clothing Values

Build into a suit enough of style to satisfy good taste, and enough of quality to insure good wear, and you have all that is possible.

It is false economy to buy a suit because of its price unless you are a judge of quality. It is our aim to show goods of such character that every man may be certain of value at every price. Should you choose to make a selection from our Fall models you may be certain you cannot make any mistake.

MANY PRAIRIE SCHOONERS PASS THROUGH SANTA ROSA

Warehouse Changes Hands; Many Realty Deals; Alfalfa Being Cut; Fruit Crop the Best in Years.

Santa Rosa, N. M., Sept. 30.—During the past two weeks about 30 covered wagons have passed through Santa Rosa en route to other New Mexico points. The wagon bridge over the Pecos river at this point makes this a very desirable route for overland travelers, as there is plenty of water and forage and a safe crossing.

The Santa Rosa Mercantile company has bought the Stearns warehouse to use in its extensive alfalfa and hay operations.

The alfalfa and hay crop this year at Santa Rosa will be nearly double that of any previous year, and large quantities will be shipped out.

Twenty acres of irrigated land have just been sold by P. B. Baca to A. A. Tipton, and 13 acres to A. C. Ortega.

A house and lots in town have been sold by C. R. Jones to C. J. Martin.

C. H. Taggart has a large force of men cutting hay on the Agua Nega grant. They will cut about 150 tons and then move up the Pintado canyon to cut hay at the Pintado Copper company's place near San Ignacio.

The high school grades have organized a basketball team.

Miss Maud Williams went to Chisna Friday to teach school. Chas. Barnhart will go to Juan de Dios October 2d to open school at that place. Miss Katie Horsley is teaching the school at Los Tanos.

The apple crop this season is ahead of anything for years, and the fruit is being hauled as far as 75 miles to supply points away from the orchards. The fruit crop is worth many thousands of dollars to Guadalupe county.

COWBOY GETS MONEY FOR PENNISS DALLAS GIRL

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 30.—Eunice Hoffield, the Dallas girl who was robbed here four days ago and who has been wandering about the union station since then without food, was driven desperate by hunger. Today she appealed to a Texas cowboy, who was broke, but he sought aid and obtained $20 and purchased a ticket to Dallas for the girl.

ALLEGED COUNTERFEITERS HAD A BOY ACCOMPLICE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—The secret service agents at Tacoma reported today the capture of an alleged gang of four counterfeiters.

One of them is a 14-year-old boy. The gang is alleged to have flooded Tacoma and Seattle with bogus $10 gold pieces, nickels and half dollars. Samuel Lewis, one of the leaders, was lately paroled from Folsom prison, California, where he served 21 years of a 35 year sentence for arson. The boy was used to pass the bad money, it is claimed.

FAMILY REUNION AT MOUNTAIN PARK

Old Time Square Dances; Cloudcroft Resorters Come to the Circus.

By Mrs. W. S. Tilton.

Cloudcroft, N. M., Sept. 30.—Of all the good times that have been enjoyed in the Sacramento mountains, none was more so than the family reunion at Mountain Park, of the late judge and Mrs. Allen Blacker's family. The reunion was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Thompson.

The family enjoyed an old fashioned moonlight picnic and chicken supper. The members of the family present were Mrs. Martha Robinson Blacker and daughters, Mrs. Lydia Blacker Kerrick, of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Belle Blacker Thompson, Mrs. Mary Blacker Hille, and Miss Allene Blacker, of El Paso; Mrs. Mary Robinson Grant, of Louisville, Ky.; G. T. Thompson and George Hille, and grandchildren, Martha Bell Thompson, George T. Thompson, Jr., Allen Blacker Thompson, Allen Grant Hille, George Tilton Hille, and John Robinson Hille.

After the family supper, 25 couples came from all the canyons around, and to the time of an old fashioned fidda, danced square dances.

Young Wooten sang the calls, among which were, "Meet up partner, pat her on the head; if she don't like biscuit, feed her on corn bread."

"Do's I do and do as ray. Doan you wish it would never come day?"

"Swing to the girl that stole the sheep. And now the one that killed the beef. Now to the girl with the field of corn. And Sal hasn't got any stockings on."

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harrington, who were quietly married about two weeks ago, returned from their wedding trip yesterday, and as is the custom of the mountain people, they were serenaded by the crowd of young friends, tin pans, old cow bells, buzz saws, fire crackers, fire arms and anything that could make a noise awakened every one for miles around.

Will Barnes, Jr., of the United States forestry service, and Mrs. Barnes, of Washington, D. C., are visitors at the Croft.

Electrician Butts and assistant C. W. Molt left for their homes yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bergen came up yesterday.
